Orientation Programme for LL.M 1st Semester Students

It is the responsibility of every Institution to conduct Orientation Programs for the new students who have just joined the Institution. The Orientation programme is an opportunity to introduce the new students to the new life at the Institution. The purpose of conducting such programme is to facilitate a smooth transition to the new life at the Institution. The objective is to help the students adjust to the campus through a series of activities and sessions organized as part of the programme.

With these objectives, Dispur Law College is organizing an Orientation Programme for the LL.M 1st Semester Students who will be starting their new course at the Institution. The Orientation Programme will enable the students understand the curriculum of LL.M Course and the methodologies and strategies to be adopted for their study.

For this programme, Prof. Romesh Chandra Borpatra Gohain and Dr. Aparajita Baruah have been invited as the Guest of honour to speak on the occasion. The esteemed dignitaries will guide and motivate the students of LL.M 1st semester students at the Orientation Programme. Prof. Romesh Chandra Borpatra Gohain retired as the Dean and Head of the PG Department of Law at the Gauhati University. He had also served as the Advocate General for the State of Assam at the Gauhati High Court. Dr. Aparajita Baruah is presently serving as the Head of the PG Department of Law at the Gauhati University. Both the honourable resource persons are academicians with a long and vast experience of teaching and research.

Besides this Orientation Programme, there will be a Library Orientation Programme for the students. The librarian, Ms. Pallavi Neog will apprise the new students about the proper use of tools and technologies in the library which will facilitate in their study and research.

The LL.M Orientation Programme is to be organized on 4th March, 2023 from 10.30 am onwards in the Campus. The Orientation Programme is compulsory for the students of LL.M 1st semester students.
