The meeting was started with the welcome address given by Dr. Swapna Manindra Nath Deka, Vice Principal, Dispur Law College. In the Programme the resource person Dr. Jintu Borah has inspired the students through his speech in their communication skill development which is a very indispensable for the legal profession. He also gave emphasis on the importance of text books. Dr. Jintu Borah also clearly elaborated the Phonics which is recommended as the first strategy that students should taught. Phonics teaches children to be able to listen carefully and identify the phonemes that make up each word. This helps the students to learn to read words and to spell words using the corresponding graphemes.

Dr. Borah also mentioned some English phonics word which have some similarities with Assamese letters. The programme was concluded with the interactive session with the resource person.
